

Investigation Summary Report

Private Residence
White Castle, LA

HISTORY

Investigators: Martin DeLatte/Elissa Lehnhardt

Claims: Voices of babies crying/children laughing, hearing footsteps, cat was locked in unused closet, shadow figures seen by owners and passerbys on the street, rocking chairs would rock on their own

Note: The residence had been uninhabited with the power cut off for approximately 2 years.

Equipment: Digital voice Recorders, Infrared Video, Mini-DV with night shot, Digital Still cameras, Digital Voice Recorders, K-II meters, Infrared Non-contact Thermometers

EMF Readings: Throughout the night EMF readings stayed at base level. Larger EMF areas were noted in the usual spots; in the kitchen around appliances, around TVs and clocks in the living room and bedrooms.

Personal Experiences: Throughout the night no personal experiences were noted by anyone present

In Conclusion:

1. No scientific evidence was recorded on audio or video during the investigation
2. The lack of energy sources for an extended period of time may have made it unsustainable to the presence of paranormal activity
3. A future investigation is recommended after being re-inahabited
