

Investigation Summary Report

PRIVATE BUSINESS
LAKE CHARLES, LA.

HISTORY

A local eatery in downtown Lake Charles is occupying a building built in the early 1900's. The building has seen many different businesses over the years. There have been many stories told of strange happenings there as well.

EXPERIENCES

Shadows have been seen, as well as apparitions of a man and a woman dressed in early 1990's style clothing. A voice of a young female has been heard. Even claims of some of the present employees being touched.

INVESTIGATION

LaSpirits SW Chapter was given the opportunity to investigate the building. During the investigation, one of the investigators experienced a light brush on his arm where the voice of the young female is said to be heard. A stuffed animal perched on a shelf was witnessed by two investigators shifting forward on its own. Unfortunately, this event was not captured on video. Except for these two events the night was rather quiet. After examining evidence collected, we did acquire this piece of audio.
